Violent and Criminal Incidents Report

Montague ISD had no instances of violent and criminal acts during the 2015-16 school year.

Montague ISD strives to be proactive by providing character education programs from Pre-K kindergarten through 8th grade. The district provides programs through school assemblies to include school safety, wellness, character education and anti-bullying. In addition to character education, the District provides and encourages participation in numerous extracurricular activities.

Montague ISD reviews the safety and security strategies currently being utilized by the district regularly. Montague ISD considers the safety of our students as our utmost priority. The Administration and Board of Trustees are committed to providing a safe campus.
